-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 14 November 2005.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3 and 12-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shukushima 5,650,205.

3. Shukushima discloses heat shrinkable tubes for electric wires in column 1, lines 15-16, thermoplastic polyurethane elastomers in column 2, line 17, flame retardants in column 2, lines 25-59 and the paragraph overlapping columns 2 and 3, antioxidants in column 3, lines 22-38, metal deactivators, among them 3-(N-salicyloyl)amino-1,2,4-triazole and decamethylenedicarboxylic acid disalicyloylhydrazide in column 3, lines 39-49 and concentrations in Table 1. Applicants' claims are not novel.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1, 3 and 12-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shukushima 5,650,205, in view of Nishiguchi et al. 6,242,097.

7. Both references have been discussed previously. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to select TPU and salicylaldehyde derivatives from a list of equivalents, since Nishiguchi et al. shows them in claims 1 and 13 respectively, proving that they are customary ingredients of electrical insulations.

8. Claims 1, 3 and 6-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ambrose 5,061,830, in view of Shukushima 5,650,205, further in view of Nishiguchi et al. 6,242,097.

9. Ambrose teaches a flat film conductor in claim 1, two film layers in claim 5 and a film made of urethane in column 3, line 15. The other references have been discussed already. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to use the compositions of the secondary and tertiary references for the film of Ambrose, since they are uniquely suited for electrical insulation.
